Advocacy

Regional victim advocates represent the Attorney General's Office throughout the state, providing a direct conduit between local victim services organizations and this office to promote the awareness of victims' rights. To advance the goal of ensuring these rights are afforded to the state's diverse populations, specific outreach initiatives are directed toward Haitian and Spanish speaking populations in south Florida. Additionally, regional victim advocates:

- Schedule and provide training to allied professionals related to Division of Victim Services programs, such as the Address Confidentiality Program, Victim Compensation, Identity Theft, Economic Crime, Domestic Violence Relocation, and Sexual Battery Relocation. In 2020-2021, 518 trainings/presentations were conducted for approximately 3,373 participants.

- In addition, 143 students attended 2 CyberSafety presentations. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic and students not attending schools in-person, this presentation was not able to be given as in prior years
- In 2020-2021 technical assistance was provided for approximately 7,707 inquiries related to victim compensation claims
- Provide direct assistance to victims by offering information and referral, crisis intervention, education related to the criminal justice system, and victim compensation assistance. In 2020-2021, more than 30,307 victims were supported with 39,842 direct services.

The Bureau of Advocacy and Grants Management continued to administer the VOCA funding during the 2020-2021 federal fiscal year, October 1 through September 30. Appendix C is a listing of the amounts awarded for VOCA sub-grantees during 2020-2021.

BUREAU OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE PROGRAMS

The Bureau of Criminal Justice Programs provides statewide public education and training programs for law enforcement personnel, school resource officers, victim advocates and other interested persons on crime prevention initiatives, school-based officer programs, victim advocacy and related criminal justice programs.

The Florida Crime Prevention Training Institute (FCPTI) was established (Section 16.54, F.S.) as part of the “HELP STOP CRIME” program and is administered by the Bureau of Criminal Justice Programs.

In addition, the bureau administers the Crime Stoppers and Urban League grant programs, the annual National Conference on Preventing Crime, the Florida Council on the Social Status of Black Men and Boys, the Law Enforcement Death Benefits program, the Safe Neighborhoods Act, the Florida Human Trafficking Summit, the Law Enforcement Awards Ceremony and the Victim’s Rights Ceremony.

Our website, www.fcpti.com allows us to market FCPTI nationally and allows for on-line course registrations. Currently, approximately 99% of all registrations are received from online registration, which reduced the costs of paper and mailings.

Last year, COVID-19 had a significant negative impact on our training program within the Florida Crime Prevention Training Institute. We had to cancel 16 crime prevention and victim services related training courses. This year, 14 courses were cancelled, numerous cancelled courses were re-scheduled and FCPTI is still working towards virtual classes for our victim services training. However, many of our in-person courses have been completed this year and many more are being placed on the training calendar for next year.

The goals and objectives of FCPTI are:

- Develop and maintain a standardized, comprehensive crime prevention, victim services, and school resource officers training curriculum throughout the state.
- Keep victims, practitioners in the field of crime prevention, and school resource officers up to date on new prevention methods, ideas, and problems in crime prevention.
- Assist in making crime prevention an integral part of law enforcement and the community.
- Continually develop and implement new and innovative training programs.

Florida Crime Prevention Training Institute (FCPTI)

FCPTI courses are designed to provide comprehensive crime prevention training to Florida’s law enforcement community, school resource officers, victim advocates, citizenry and industry to enable them to control crime by denying criminal opportunity and behavior. Authorized in Section 16.54, F.S., the FCPTI Revolving Trust Fund is self-sustaining and is funded by tuition payments paid by training program participants. Training schedules may be accessed at www.fcpti.com.

Numerous practitioner designation programs are offered including: Crime Prevention, Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design, Elderly Crime, School Resource Officer (SRO), and Victim Services. In addition, this office provides a certification to law enforcement officers in Convenience Store Security. The Attorney General’s Office is the primary source of training for crime prevention, victim services, elderly issues, and school resource officers (SRO) statewide and is a national leader in these fields.

Individuals trained by FCPTI play a vital role through community education in reducing crime and victimization statewide. Curriculum development is coordinated with the respective organizational entities to which they relate (i.e., Florida Association of School Resource Officers, Florida Crime Prevention Association, Florida Department of Law Enforcement, and Florida Department of Education). This year's activities included:

Courses	25
Attendees	586
Designations awarded	273
Classroom hours	828

Crime Prevention Practitioner Designation Training

The crime prevention practitioner designation (FCPP) is awarded to those individuals who successfully complete a series of three comprehensive crime prevention courses offered through FCPTI. The curriculum includes instruction in basic crime prevention, commercial crime prevention, and residential crime prevention. To maintain the designation, practitioners are required to attend refresher courses every three years. There are approximately 4600 crime prevention practitioners throughout the state. Over 25 percent of the state's law enforcement officers have received crime prevention training. Additionally, crime prevention training is evolving to respond to current trends and conditions. This year's activities included:

Courses	5
Attendees	130
Designations awarded	70
Classroom Hours	152

Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design (CPTED) Practitioner Designation Training

In 2004, the designation of Florida Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design Practitioner (FCP) was made available to individuals who successfully completed sixty-four hours of comprehensive CPTED courses offered through FCPTI. Designed for crime prevention and community-oriented policing officers, planners and architects, the designation provides officers and civilians with the skills necessary to deliver comprehensive CPTED programs to Florida's residential and commercial industry, as well as local government.

Courses	5
Attendees	226
Designations awarded	97
Classroom Hours	136

Elderly Services Practitioner Designation Training

In 1986, the Attorney General's Office began training on elder issues with a series of one-day workshops across the state on "Fraud Against the Elderly." This led to the design of a five-day "Crimes Against the Elderly" course that was eventually adopted by the Florida Department of Law Enforcement (FDLE) as an "Advanced" course. With a growing senior population, there was an increase in elderly criminal victimization such as financial exploitation, abuse and neglect. To meet the demand for further training and a designation, the Attorney General's Office expanded training for law enforcement and those professionals who interact with this population on a daily basis. These courses provide participants with detailed information on the role of the law enforcement officer in combating senior crime, in establishing prosecutorial cases, and a comprehensive look at abuse and neglect.

To earn the Florida Elder Crime Practitioner Designation (FECF), a participant must successfully complete eighty-eight hours of instruction offered through FCPTI within a period of three consecutive years. The requirement includes the forty-hour Crimes Against the Elderly course and two twenty-four-hour courses. No elderly classes were held due to lack of course registrations.

School Resource Officer Practitioner Designation Training

---

The objective of the School Resource Officer (SRO) training is to enhance the skills of school-based professionals who deal with juvenile issues on a daily basis. The classes are designed for SROs, school administrators and staff, and other professionals who work with students in campus settings. The SRO curriculum includes an advanced training (i.e., salary incentive) course that has been approved by the Criminal Justice Standards and Training Commission. Officers have the opportunity to earn the SRO practitioner designation with completion of the basic SRO course and an additional 90 hours of FCPTI juvenile-related courses. 396 officers have obtained the designation since its inception in 1988. In addition, a new “SRO Specialist” program was developed for those SROs that cannot attend the required hours for a designation. This year’s SRO training activities included:

Courses	4
Attendees	110
Designations awarded	7
Classroom Hours	104

Victim Services Practitioner Designation Training

---

Victim training programs are designed for novice and veteran victim advocates and allied professionals to enhance crisis intervention skills and increase awareness of available services and resources. The curriculum consists of victim services practitioner designation classes, advanced advocate training, and issue briefings. The designation program (VSPD) is a five-day course designed to improve the knowledge, skills, and abilities of service providers. This designation is valid for four years and may be renewed by providing evidence of 24 hours of non-agency victim related training during the four-year period, including advanced advocate training. Approximately 6600 designations have been awarded since inception of the program in 1995. Advanced advocate training is designed to enhance the skills and abilities of experienced victim service providers. Issue briefings focus on current issues from a local perspective. This year’s victim services training included:

Designations awarded	99
Classroom Hours	152

The Office of the Attorney General is required by statute to review and approve the training curriculum used by convenience businesses for training their employees. Since the inception of the program, FCPTI has trained and certified approximately 400 law enforcement officers who make periodic inspections of the convenience businesses in their geographical areas. Violations are reported to and investigated by this office. Continued noncompliance may result in a fine of up to $5,000 or an injunction for closure of the business.

The Convenience Business Security program has been unfunded since 1992 (See §812.1725-§812.176, F.S.). During FY 2020-2021 the program was statutorily moved to the Department of Business and Professional Regulation.

Legal Counsel – Appeals

The claimant is notified of the division's decision in writing when the claim is determined to be ineligible. The claimant is granted the opportunity to appeal the decision within 60 days of the denial by submitting a petition which meets the requirements of the uniform rules of procedure, pursuant to §120.569 or §120.57, F.S. A Notice of Rights form is included with each denial notice and may act as a petition. The claimant may submit additional evidence with the petition proving eligibility, and based on this new information, the claim may be reconsidered. When a satisfactory petition is received, it is reviewed to determine whether material facts are at issue which would require the evidence to be weighed by an impartial hearing officer in an evidentiary hearing. The claimant is granted an informal hearing and given the opportunity to make an oral presentation to the Division Director when there are no material facts at issue. This year's activities included:

New Appeals	129
Appeals Closed	128
Final Orders Issued	0
Circuit Court Cases	0
Circuit Court Cases Resolved	0

Legal Counsel – Subrogation

---

Whenever a person files a claim for victim compensation benefits, he or she must sign the application form which includes a repayment requirement. That statement says that if the claimant (or person signing the application) receives a victim compensation award and also receives payment as a result of the same criminal incident from another source, he or she must repay any amount received from the Crimes Compensation Trust Fund. The statutory basis for this requirement is §960.16, F.S. This year's subrogation activities included:

49 cases settled
$156,425 recovered

State Institutions Claims

Prior to June 30, 2021, the bureau served as a conduit for processing State Institution (SI) claims in compliance with s. 402.181, F.S., for property damages and direct medical expenses associated with injuries caused by shelter or foster children, escapees, inmates, or patients of state institutions in custody of the Department of Children and Family Services, the Department of Health, the Department of Juvenile Justice, the Department of Corrections, or the Agency for Persons with Disabilities. Chapter 2021-131, Laws of Florida, was enacted giving sole authority to those respective agencies to hear such claims and issue payments pursuant to their guidelines. Prior to the transfer of authority, this year's activities included:

430 Total Claims Received
 326 Claims Approved
 103 Claim Denied
